AI Smart Technology Pavilion — Bringing Commercial Value to Life

The exhibition's standout highlight, the "AI Smart Technology Pavilion," showcases intelligent solutions for logistics powered by AI, bringing together 13 technology leaders to present the latest R&D achievements — including AI sorting systems, AI warehousing systems, real-time carbon emission monitoring, and delivery prediction applications. The pavilion offers a comprehensive look at the cutting-edge advances in supply chain digitalization and intelligent transformation, addressing the full spectrum of hardware and software needs across the industry.

Asia-Pacific Supply Chain & Smart Logistics Forum & Innovative Solutions Showcase

The forum focuses on four core themes: "Smart Supply Chain Transformation in Retail and E-commerce," "Global Layout and AI Transformation in Manufacturing," "Sustainable International Logistics," and "Innovative Cold Chain Technology."

Through in-depth analysis, these topics have become a focal point for industry, government, academia, and research sectors. Featuring a powerful lineup, the forum brings together world-class speakers from the United States and Asia to share the latest global supply chain strategies and innovative perspectives on logistics.

Declaration of the Taoyuan Supply Chain & Smart Logistics Alliance Formation

The exhibition was grandly inaugurated at the Messe Taoyuan, bringing together leaders and experts from Taiwan's logistics industry to witness a significant milestone in smart logistics. As warehouse automation and smart logistics technologies continue to advance rapidly, Taoyuan has become the preferred location for major domestic logistics providers.

Moving forward, the City Government will actively promote smart logistics policies. By leveraging the announcement of the 'Taoyuan Supply Chain and Smart Logistics Alliance' during the opening ceremony, the city aims to strengthen collaboration between industry, government, academia, and research sectors to transform Taoyuan into a central hub for smart logistics in the Asia-Pacific region.

Unitech Electronics Co., Ltd. Profet AI, POWER HANDLING CO., LTD., LOGILAB CO., LTD., CipherLab Co., Ltd., Maersk Contract Logistics Limited, MOMO Logistics and other manufacturers have successfully matched business opportunities, yielding fruitful results.

2026 Expo Goals

Globalization in manufacturing and the rise of omnichannel retail are driving massive opportunities for the transformation and upgrading of the smart logistics industry.

Taoyuan City Government has established the 'Taoyuan Supply Chain and Smart Logistics Alliance,' partnering with the 'Smart Business & Logistics Asia Exhibition' to collectively establish Taoyuan as a premier logistics hub in the Asia-Pacific region.

Taoyuan City occupies a pivotal position, linking the industrial production zones across Northern Taiwan—including Taipei, New Taipei, Keelung, Taoyuan, and Hsinchu—with 50% of the national consumer market and key logistics and warehousing hubs.

2026 Exhibition Zone Planning

International Logistics Zone

Focusing on domestic and international import/export transportation.

This zone covers service providers in sea ports, air freight, warehousing, and Free Trade Zones (FTZ)

Logistics Talent Development Zone

Connecting logistics-related departments from universities and training institutions to provide resources for industrial talent cultivation and recruitment matching.

Smart Business Logistics Asia Exhibition

Carbon Reduction & Sustainability Zone

Focusing on green transportation, eco-friendly warehousing equipment, circular packaging, carbon management, and reverse logistics solutions.

AI Smart Technology Zone

Integrating application technologies such as smart transportation, intelligent warehousing, smart e-commerce, autonomous mobile robots (AMR/AGV), logistics management systems, fire safety, and cybersecurity.

Cold Chain Innovation Zone

Bringing together energy-efficient refrigeration, cold chain warehousing, logistics distribution, transportation equipment, cold storage processing, and smart cold chain system applications.

2026 Exhibition Zone Categories

International Logistics Zone

- International airports, seaports, and free trade zones
- Air and Maritime transport services
- International freight forwarding and bonded logistics
- Integrated supply chain service providers
- Shipping and air cargo agents
- Freight forwarders and customs brokers
- Sustainable Aviation Fuel (SAF) supply chain providers
- Third-Party Logistics (3PL) / Fourth-Party Logistics (4PL)

Logistics Talent Development Zone

- Human resource development and training institutions
- Logistics industry associations
- University departments and academic programs
- Certification and accreditation bodies
- Logistics industry media platforms
- Industry-academia collaboration initiatives

AI Smart Technology Zone

- Smart warehousing solutions
- Smart logistics system integration
- Fire safety and security management systems
- Asset monitoring and surveillance systems
- Smart e-commerce solutions
- Intelligent transportation management systems
- Electric logistics vehicles
- Low-altitude economy solutions (drones and UAV technologies)
- AI autonomous driving technologies
- AMR/AGV/robots solutions
- Smart logistics real estate development and operations
- Logistics information systems (ERP/WMS/TMS)
- Last-mile delivery solutions

Cold Chain Innovation Zone

- Energy-efficient refrigeration and Insulation engineering
- Thermal control systems & insulation materials
- Cold chain storage and green packaging solutions
- Cold chain logistics and transportation services
- Refrigerated transport vehicles and equipment
- Energy-saving refrigeration and cold retention technologies
- Central kitchen and food processing equipment
- Cold chain display and storage equipment
- Smart cold chain IT and monitoring solutions

Carbon Reduction & Sustainability Zone

- Green transportation and logistics vehicles
- Sustainable warehouse construction materials and equipment
- Circular packaging and plastic reduction solutions
- Green warehousing and green cold chain solutions
- Carbon inventory, carbon management, and digital sustainability technologies
- Reverse logistics and circular economy solutions
